

Dear Past, Present, and Future Customers,

Welcome to the new parts area on the USNR website. Making more useful information available through the Internet is just one of the steps USNR is taking to improve the quality of our service to you, our customers.

When you purchase machinery from USNR, you are getting more than just new equipment. You are getting the extra insurance of a company that is prepared to help you keep your machinery running smoothly and paying back for many years to come. At USNR, supplying parts and upgrades to our customers is not taken lightly. In fact, the Machinery Parts Division's top priority is to make sure you get the parts you need when you need them. We know our customers count on us and we go to great lengths to make sure we never let them down.

I encourage you to look to USNR for all of your machinery parts needs. Please explore our website further to learn more about USNR, and to find out why USNR is your best source for parts and upgrades.

USNR is striving to be the best. If there is anything we can do to serve you better, I'd like to hear from you.

Yours,
